

Job Title: Graphic Design/Art Director Internship

Location: New York, NY

Job Type: Part-Time

Experience: Entry Level

Greater Talent Network (GTN), America's leading celebrity speakers bureau, is looking for a talented and creative graphic designer to join its marketing department. This is an exciting opportunity for a designer on the rise to take ownership of projects, assist with the launch of new campaigns and develop the corporate brand online and in print. Reporting to the Director of Marketing, this internship position offers hands-on experience in the field.

Required Experience:

Experience with Photoshop, InDesign and Illustrator a must

Proficiency with Microsoft applications required

Tech and web savvy, able to pick up new online programs quickly

Experience with online and print design

To apply, please send your cover letter, resume and creative sample to Jobs@Greatertalent.com

About GTN:

Greater Talent Network (GTN), America's leading celebrity speakers bureau, represents celebrities that bring insight to audiences nationwide. GTN's exclusive celebrity speakers have the power to captivate, enlighten and entertain audiences. From experienced statesmen and best-selling authors to business visionaries and champion athletes, our speakers have inspired audiences for over 25 years.